

It's Up To You!

One of the first things most people realize is the old adage, "If it is to be, it is up to me." That is, for you, the fact that your success, happiness and your journey is up to you. This doesn't mean that you do it all alone. It simply means that you take responsibility (response ability...the ability to respond) for your life and your career. You see, no matter how you put it together, you are always in charge.

Too many people today look at opportunity and figure it is up to someone else to make sure they get it. They think about doing something about their health yet they continue the same unhealthy lifestyle thinking that they will change it soon. They wait and wait, figuring that they have time or some other external motivating factor. And then the wait is over, and it is too late to do anything. Their life is over and they are filled with regret.

This isn't true for you however. You know that you must take responsibility for your life. It is up to you.

The fact is that nobody else is going to do it for you; you must do it yourself.

Now, some people may say, "That's a lot of responsibility." Friends, that is the best news you can ever hear. You get to choose your life. Hundreds of millions of people all around this world would give anything to live in the situation you do, just for the chance to have the opportunity to take control of their destiny. "It is up to you" is a great blessing!

Here's why:

- You get to chart your own destiny. Maybe you want to start a small business. That's great because you can choose that. Maybe you want to travel. Maybe you want to live to be 100. That's okay too. The idea is that you get to choose. You can do whatever you like. Different people have different dreams and they should live them accordingly.

- You can reap

what you sow. Sleep in and go to work late and reap the return. Or get up early and outwork the others and earn a greater return. Place your capital at risk and earn a return or place it at greater risk and perhaps reap a greater return. You decide what you will sow and, thus, what you will reap.

- No one else can stop you from getting your dream. Yes, there will always be things that come up and people who may not like what you are doing, but you can just move on and chart your own course. There is great freedom in that.

- You

experience the joy of self-determination. There is no greater pride than knowing you set your mind on something and accomplished it. Those who live with a victim mentality never get to experience the joy of accomplishment because they are always waiting for someone else to come to the rescue. Those who take responsibility get to live the joy of seeing a job well done.

Let me ask you a question: Where will you be in 5 years? 10 years? 25 years? Do you know? Do you have an idea? Have you ever dreamed about it or set a written goal for it? Are you willing to take responsibility and recognize that, "It is up to you?"
